

I want to express my wishes that the State of Wisconsin not be required to water down its No-Call List policy by having to adopt the federal standard. I would, in fact, prefer that the policy be broadened to include not only telemarketers, but also non-profit organizations.